

VOYAGEUR

VOYAGEUR EQUIPMENT LIST

Storage

- (1) Inexpensive waterproof dry bag
Bags made of thick plastic or nylon with roll down clip closures are advised
- ___ Ditty bags to help organize gear

Clothing

- (1) Pair of Swimming Trunks
- (1) Pair of Dry Shorts (no jeans)
- (2) T-shirts (for wear around camp, can be cotton)
- (1) Wicking Shirt to be worn on river (poly pro, etc)
- (1) Fleece or wool Vest or Jacket
- (1) Rain Jacket and Rain Pants
No ponchos allowed!
- (3) Pairs of Socks (wool or wicking synthetic)
- (3) Pairs of Underwear
- (1) Wide brimmed Hat
- (1) Pair of Water Shoes (due to sharp rocks, we recommend closed toe shoes, not sandals)
- (1) Pair of Shoes to wear around camp

Daytime temperatures range from 65–85°

Evening temperatures are 30–60°

Eating Utensils

- (1) Plastic Bowl (1) Plastic Cup
- (1) Spoon (2) Water Bottles
 at least 32 oz. each

Optional Gear

- Fishing Equipment—A small pocket-sized tackle box is more than adequate.
- Fishing License (for those 16 and older). We can purchase five day passes on Monday morning. Prices range from $7 to $17 depending on residency and type of license.
- Knee Pads
- Pair of Gloves for paddling

Personal Items

- (1) Bandanna
- (1) Small Towel no longer than 2' x 4'
- (1) Pocketknife
- (1) Lip Balm
- (1) Toothbrush and Toothpaste
- (1) Pair of Sunglasses – These are very important, consider bringing two cheap pairs.
- (1) Waterproof Watch
- (1) Whistle
- (1) Personal First Aid Kit
- (1) Sleeping Bag—bags should be compact and rated for around +30 degrees. Pack the bag and extra clothing in a compression bag. Place all this in a heavy weight plastic bag.
- (1) Sleeping Pad—closed cell or waterproof
- (1) Ziploc Bags and ditty bags for gear
- (1) Small Flashlight
- (2) Carabiners to clip water bottles in canoe

Sharable “Crew” Items

Consider bringing only one of each per group.

- (1) Insect Repellent
- (1) Bottle of Sunscreen
- (1) Baby Powder
- (1) Soap—biodegradable liquid soap
- (1) Backpacking Tent
- (1) Box of Waterproof Matches
- (1) Deck of Cards or small Game
- (1) Pair of small Binoculars
- (1) Camera—the waterproof, disposable type is recommended
- (1) Pack of Wet Wipes
- (1) Trowel (for cat holes)

For more information on the Voyageurs read:
The Voyageur's Highway by Grace Lee Nute
The Voyageur by Grace Lee Nute