

LOOKING FOR ADVENTURE?

Looking for something to do this summer?
Are your parents nagging you to find a summer job?
Do you really want to flip burgers for minimum wage?

Why not consider a job with the Blue Ridge Mountains Council, Boy Scouts of America?

We operate a 17,500 acre Reservation that hosts approximately 10,000 participants from across the nation each summer.

SKILLED STAFF ARE NEEDED TO TEACH:

Sailing
Emergency Preparedness
C.O.P.E.
Archery
Kayaking
Backpacking
First-Aid
Whitewater Canoeing

Mountain Biking

Climbing & Rappelling Horseback Riding

Nature (Geology, Mammal Study, Environmental Science, etc.)

Pioneering
Water Skiing

If any of these areas interest you, we offer competitive salaries, training, and full room & board. Both men & women may apply. No prior Scouting Experience is required, however, former Scouts may be eligible to work in our new Brownsea Island Program.
